

2024–2025 L'Taken - Travel Protection Options

In order to help protect your investment in your program experience, we are offering a way for participants to purchase travel protection. Trip/Program costs become non-refundable after certain deadlines, but these protection plans provide a variety of levels of coverage should you need to cancel your enrollment for a reason covered by the plan purchased. Below are your options, though there may be other products on the market worth considering. In all cases, it is important to review all plans carefully as there are certain restrictions, exclusions and limitations that apply to all insurance coverages.
